If you believe that your trajectory can be improved, your rate of climb can be optimized, your destination can be achieved then the Vy Summit in Montebello is the right place for you.

Presented by

Vy Summits address the critical issues that accomplished people face today. While we feature experts who share their wisdom and insight, we are not a "guru" organization, nor a "self-help" weekend. At each summit, we collaborate and dialogue on a wide variety of topics and issues. Collectively, through our membership, we share our experiences to guide, inspire and support each other as we pursue Vy together.

Please be sure your passport is up to date for this event.

This spectacular retreat surrounded by 65,000 acres of forested wildlife sanctuary and 70 lakes has hosted a number of historic meetings; including a G-7 International Summit, attended by political figures such as Ronald Reagan and Margaret Thatcher and has welcomed guests such as Harry S. Truman, Princess Juliana of the Netherlands, Bing Crosby and Perry Como. This is not an ordinary hotel. It is a Place Worth Visiting!

PRE EVENT – JUNE 10TH

Face Reading: Maximizing Your Communication - Successful outcomes in business and every day life require tailored communication. Yet, only 7% of communication is verbal. Understanding the other 93% is essential for building professional and personal relationships.

 Vy Summit

Successful people know how to perform, how to build and they are normally driven. At Vy, we believe there is a broader definition of success. We believe a life worth living includes activities that recharge you mentally, physically and relationally. That is the secret to bringing New Energy and in turn longevity to your life and business; it is the key to true success.

Taken from aviation, Vy is a formula that a pilot uses to determine the best rate of climb for their aircraft. We use it as a metaphor to describe the trajectory of your life. Go too high and too fast, you may burn out. Go too low and too slow, you won't reach your destination. Just as a pilot must take many factors into consideration on his journey, individuals have a complex mix of factors that affect success on their journey.

We invite you to be part of the Vy experience; we invite you to discover your "best rate of climb" and be part of a community of people worth knowing that are excited for the journey ahead. Please join us at the rustically beautiful Fairmont Le Château Montebello in eastern Canada for our June summit.

This lavishly beautiful setting is a place worth visiting in its own right; from the rugged mountains that surround this uniquely pristine location to the hotel itself, which is the largest log structure in the world. It invites you to indulge yourself in the majesty that surrounds you and clear the fog of every day life.

As you consider whatever it is you are facing on your journey, ask yourself if you believe there are people out there that are worth knowing, people you want beside you on the way. The Vy model is designed to create a safe place for senior level executives to be among trustworthy peers to get to their next level in life.

Why to come:

- ◆ Build professional and personal relationships
- ◆ Get expert advice
- ◆ Put adventure in your life
- ◆ Get focused on your unique Vy journey

The Fairmont is easily accessible by flying to Ottawa. From there it is a 56 mile drive through the beautiful Ottawa river valley to Montebello
